THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Growth of American Foreign Missions.

Robert E. Speer, secretary of Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, contributes to The Missionary Review a statistical survey of American Protestant foreign missionary enterprise during the past thirteen years. Mr. Speer reminds us that at the close of the nineteenth century many believed that the foreign missionary movement had reached its greatest development and must soon decline, since "the conditions which had produced and nourished it had changed, and the motives to which it had appealed were dead or would soon die." In spite of these predictions, he states, the statistics of the leading Protestant missionary organizations in the United States show "a growth in missionaries from 2,481 to 3,776, and in contributions to the work from $4,181,327 to $5,807,165."

Another significant development of the past decade, as he points out, has been the growth in the study of missions, represented in particular by the Student Volunteer movement, from whose ranks 2,357 missionaries have gone out since 1892.

The last thirteen years has seen a large expansion of the work in the mission fields already occupied. One significant thing in the tables is the small increase in the number of missions. The churches have had all they could do to care for the missions already established. But there have been new fields occupied since then. The Spanish war opened Cuba and Porto Rico and the Philippines. In 1892 there was, and could be nothing in the Philippines, and there was not very much more in the other islands. Now, there are in these islands alone six Protestant missions, with about 2,000 church members, including Methodist probationers. This is clear advance. Other wars than the Spanish war have affected missions. In 1892 the Boxer troubles first devastated missions in China and then the land reacted, opening the field wider than ever before, and creating an educational and literary demand without precedent. The terrible losses of that upheaval have already been repaired twice over. In 1902 there were 1,296 missionaries and 37,287 native Christians in China. In 1905 there were 3,107 and 131,404.

Of certain movements toward union in the foreign field, Mr. Speer writes:

"Since 1892 there have been union movements resulting in the organic union of different denominations in Mexico, Korea and India, and there is scarcely a field where there has not been distinct progress in organized comunity and co-operation. In Peking, Congregationalists, Methodists and Presbyterians unite in educational efforts; in Shantung, Baptists and Presbyterians in a joint university.

And now in Korea a great union is proposed which will consolidate the work of the American Methodists and the American, Canadian and Australian Presbyterians."

The missionary enterprise is no waning enterprise. He adds:

"It entered the nineteenth century with seven missionary societies and left it with 300. It entered with 170 missionaries, and left it with 12,000. It entered with an income of $25,000 and left with $15,000,000. It entered with 56 translations of Bible, and left with 400. It entered with 50,000 native Christians, and left with 1,500,000. And it is not ending its work. It is only beginning."

Interesting News.

It will be interesting to all readers of the ADVOCATE to hear that at last a genuine cure for Constipation, Indigestion, Liver complaint, Headache and Biliousness has been found in Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) syrup pepsin. It is a pleasant, tonic purifying syrup with a mild action, and no bad after effects. Sold by W. S. Lloyd at 50¢ and $1.00. Money back if it fails. 25-55

Capitol Commission.

Governor Beckham, as chairman of the Board of Building Commissioners of the new Capitol on Wednesday made the Commission's first report to the Legislature. A full explanation is given of every expenditure. It is shown that of the $880,000 appropriation that of $32,716.87 has been drawn. Of the special appropriation of $40,000 made to purchase a new site, there has been expended $34,896.00.

FOR CONGRESS.
We are authorized to announce Judge H. C. Meeker as a candidate for Congress in the Tenth District, subject to the action of the Republican party, in convention or otherwise.

SUFFICIENCY OF LAW.

Laws enacted by men, if enforced, tend to restrain the vicious and in some cases do keep some men from committing crime or lesser violation of the rights of others.

To save men from the practice, guilt and consequences of sin is beyond the power of the wisest and best men.

Their laws are wholly inadequate.

The gospel is the power of God to save

men. This if heard and obeyed changes a man's heart, motive, will and life.

Without the gospel

men stumble along to the grave in blindness, weakness and despair

though surrounded with wealth, and possessing much of human knowledge and wisdom.

We can see that we must not give up the conflict with sin as it is manifested in the vile passions of men. Let us therefore let us be living, let us be patriotic in that we shall endeavor to remove from our land the incentives to wrong doing; the stumbling blocks over which year by year, thousands and thousands of Kentuckians and Americans are falling to their shame, reproach and sorrow.

Our great National, State, County, and City reproach and disgrace is the legalized whiskey traffic.

If the Congress of the United States, or our State Legislatures, or our patriotic jurists, lawyers, doctors, farmers, editors, citizens wish to do valiant service for our land and people, let us strike the death blow to the whiskey traffic. We appeal to our congressmen, our legislators, our public men, who are influential in the formation of laws, to see to it now that the youth of our land are protected, that conditions are made such that to do and be good is easy and that to do and be bad is hard. Let the juries in our courts execute the laws.

In the Senate of Kentucky there has been offered a bill entitled "A Cigarette Bill," which is very much like the Indiana bill. This bill will not allow the sale of cigarettes, of cigarette paper, nor will it permit a dealer to have either the paper or cigarettes in his possession.

The penalty is severe.

From the reason that the smoking of cigarettes is injurious, that it has caused death and creates a predisposition to wasting disease evident, and in protection of coming generations this bill has been offered, and it would be an act of mercy should it become a law.

We can call to mind now some of earth's best young men who through the use of the cigarettes are filling untimely graves. Their use is hurtful to the present generation and passes down with its injurious effects to coming generations, giving to the country a feeble man, and delicate woman and hence the measure should become a law.

A building and loan association properly financed, would be be-helpful to the growth of Mt. Sterling. Without them small earnings are put aside and with them towns grow into cities.

All kinds of Rubber Goods.

Punch & Gravels.

CROSSINGS.

The Street Commissioner, Dr. T. Apperson, has the thanks of the public for his service in having the crossings cleaned. He takes hold as if he were not afraid to soil his hands, and will no doubt see that the crossings are made passable, and that other improvements are looked after.

BLOCKADE.

The police will see to it that the pavements on Sunday evenings will not be blockaded either by whites or blacks. Such can not be avoided on public days like court day. Some men are very thoughtless and swear when congregated on the pavement where ladies and gentlemen have to pass. We are not considering the moral success to their quadrupeds.

SAHOONS TO CLOSE.
In this issue is an article "Enter Agreement, Do Richmond Saloons to Observe Sunday Closing Laws." We commend to the saloonists of Mt. Sterling a similar course. They at Richmond and other places have no doubt seen the handwriting on the wall, and will be good, law abiding.

OUR STREETS.

As is known the rock used on our streets is fine for mortar when exposed for a few weeks. We expect but little improvement until a better quality of rock is used. The digging up of our streets for laying gas pipes has already made much noise much. A suggestion by city officials to gas officials that care be exercised in repacking fittings and replacing metal would add somewhat to cleanliness in travel by foot, horse or carriage.

HALL OF FAME.

Representative J. M. Alverson of Lincoln, introduced a bill in the House on Friday providing for an appropriation of $10,000 by the State for two statues from Kentucky to be placed in the Hall of Fame. The bill provides that the statues should be those of Henry Clay and William Goebel.

Recognizing some of the excellencies of Mr. Goebel, we are frank to say that we think the above bill should not become a law so far as Mr. Goebel is concerned.

Following are words from Judge Paynter to the editor of the Advocate:

"I am greatly indebted to you for many good offices during my recent campaign, and I take this opportunity to thank you for them. Your paper was the first to say a kind word for me after I announced my candidacy, and I beg to assure you that you have my deepest gratitude."

Your friend,

T. H. PAYNTER.

We publish this letter for the reason that we would have the people to know more fully of the powers of the ADVOCATE. "Your paper was the first to say a kind word for me." Judge Paynter was elected, notwithstanding the strong and vigorous fight of Senator Blackburn.

NO WHISKEY ADS.

We have received the second number of the Sandy Valley Courier, edited by C. A. Kirk at Louisville, Ky., recently printed at Paintsville as the Paintsville Commercial. Editorial it says:

"It is not our intention to carry whiskey ads in the Courier, but we had some old contracts with the Commercial at Paintsville that were not carried out and as we had been paid for the work we are finishing up the work in the Courier. When these contracts run out there will be no more whiskey advertisements in this paper."

Hurrah for the Courier! We have had no whiskey ads for nine years. There are some things that money does not buy.

STAGE REALISM IS NOT NEW

Many Plays Have Been Written with Animals as the Principal Figures.

The introduction of a flock of sheep into a stage spectacle seems from newspaper comment to have given the impression that live stock is new on the stage. This, of course, is wide of the mark. A tragedy the other day had its inception in a play written round four lions and a lioness which used to play nights at Astley's. There was an opera, which revolved around a Spanish bull, until one night the latter demolished the mock arena on the stage and stamped the whole company. A real Derby winner used each night to win his triumph before the footlights, and plays such as "The Still Alarm" and "Ben Hur" owed much of their success to their quadrupeds.

The most realistic scene of modern days was staged in Paris. The story comes from Herr Seeth, the principal player in it. Six lions were turned into the arena, with thirteen to which he was a stranger. Lay figures, about which horseflesh was concealed, were thrown in, and these lions rent as the forbears rent the early Christians in the arenas of Rome. At the psychological moment Seeth entered to interrupt the feast and subdue the feasters.

The moment the door closed behind him he tripped, and as he fell a lion seized him by the thigh.

The others followed—all save one, the patriarch of his own troupe. This fought for him.

The others wrestled and fought and tore over his body, while the pioneer unmercifully crushed his leg. A blow with a crowbar through the throat of this brute killed him, and in the resulting pause attendants dragged him out in a horrible plight. He was nine months in a hospital, and that scene never again was staged.

HIS MISSION A HIGH ONE.

Dime Museum Freak Was Fasting to Order That He Might Break Up the Criminal Trusts.

"Ladies and gentlemen," said the lecturer at the dime museum, according to the Chicago Tribune, "call your particular attention to the cadaverous specimen of the human family now on the platform before you. This ladies and gentlemen, is not an ordinary human skeleton. He is not a freak in any sense of the term. He is a victim, if I may use the term of a high and noble purpose. Animated by a sincere desire to benefit his fellow beings, this man, whose name is Ira Grimes Tate, is undertaking to fast for 40 days, and is now in the thirty-second day of his self-imposed task.

"He is not doing this in order to demonstrate that it can be done. It has been done before. Neither is he doing it for notoriety or personal gain. It was with extreme reluctance that he consented to place himself on exhibition. He is undergoing this voluntary task, ladies and gentlemen, solely for the purpose of doing all that one man can do to break up the infamous combinations, from the beef trust down to the breakfast food trust, that are enriching themselves at the expense of the people. Pausing a moment in order that those who wish to purchase his portrait for the purpose of helping along a good cause may have an opportunity of doing so . . . we will pass to the next platform, which is occupied by Mine. Addie Peaux, the fattest woman on earth."

Cheap Postage Stamps.

Postage stamps at Villagarcia are so moderate in price that the convenience of the lower classes they are being sold at 40 a penny.

The only difficulty is that they cover a letter so completely that if it is desired to put on the address a second letter has to be posted to hold the remainder of the stamp.

WERE HELD UP BY WOMAN

Drummer Tells of Unique Experience Which Happened to Party in the West.

"Was I ever held up by a highwayman during my western trips?" asked the drummer in the smoking car in response to a question. "Well, I didn't escape the distinction, only in my case the stage robber happened to be a woman. We didn't size up her sex at first because she was dressed like a desperado and wore a mask and carried a belt full of guns, but we let us know who she was before she got through with the outfit."

"I was seated with the driver of the stage on my way from Circleville to a town named Goldrock, and we were not expecting a hold-up, because such a thing as a stage robbery had not been heard of in that neighborhood for some years. We were therefore a little nervous when at a turn of the road a masked figure appeared and a shot was fired over our heads while the driver was called on to hold in his horses.

"The bandit seemed rather nervous and new at the business, I thought, but held a business gun in one hand, and that was quite enough to keep us quiet.

"Well, he, or rather she, ordered us all out in a rough voice and lined up along the roadside with our hands stretched forward. I only had a few dollars with me, as I was waiting for a remittance, so regarded the adventure as rather interesting than otherwise. The masked robber looked us over for some time—it seemed to me hours—then advanced and motioned for a big, drowsy looking man to step out of the line. He was the biggest fellow in the bunch and the biggest coward, too, for he was shaking all over like a bug of jelly.

"The bandit said nothing, but helped himself—I mean himself to the contents of his pockets.

There was a roll of greenbacks that would choke a cow, which she counted over and finally showed away in her blue flannel shirt.

"You can sail ahead now, gentlemen, when you please," she said, tossing off her mask and revealing the face of a handsome black-eyed woman. This measly honest fellow, pointing to the stout chap whose robe she had appropriated, was once my husband." I got a divorce from him, and for a year I never could get a cent out of him for alimony; not even the courts would help me; so here I've took the law in my hands as a high-spirited woman should. Good day to you, and turning around on her heels she swung her hat by way of farewell and disappeared in the bushes."

BEAUTIFUL MUSKOKA LAKES

Hunted Indian Tribes Once Lived Along Shores of Canadian Waters—Derivation of Names.

Long ago, there lived along the shore of three fairy lakes in northern Ontario a portion of the ill-fated tribe of Huron Indians, who, with their allies, the Algonquins, were so mercilessly pursued by the vengeful Iroquois, relates Four-Track News. From one of their great chiefs, Musquodoo, the lakes derived their name, "Muskoka," and the significance "starry sky" is well deserved as if they lay under the blue heavens of the Italian wonderland. In almost every country is found a little group of lakes which poets and writers have immortalized. The lonely grandeur of the deep Scotch lochs, the quiet beauty of the English lake-country, the fairy Killarney, Llanerch, the lake of the four forest cantons, the Italian lakes, reflecting in their clear depths flower-decked villas and quaint villages, have been celebrated for ages but their beauties, separate or combined, are equalled by those of this little clover-leaf group, Lakes Muskoka, Joseph and Rousseau with their 500 islands nestling in their placid depths.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court convened Monday with Circuit Judge A. W. Young and Commonwealth Attorney Alex Connor present. The grand jury is a good one. It would be difficult to find a better one. To them Judge Young delivered an impressive charge. He said as a preface to his charge that he knew each man that composed the jury, and from that fact and the further fact that he knew they were sufficiently informed to know the duties of a grand juror, he would refer only to such offenses as needed to be emphasized.

This grand jury is important, owing as it has first after the November election when it is currently reported that men bought votes and men sold their suffrage, to look after this matter. Here he read the law to the jury. County officers cannot become interested in county claims. Also look after the offices of the county and see that the records are properly kept, and also of the Circuit clerk.

New officers are just entering on their duties and old ones are going out, look after their work and if not within the limit of the law your duty should assert itself.

There are persons who have moved out beyond their limit and onto the property of county roads,

Look after this matter. Here he read the law to the jury. County officers cannot become interested in county claims. Also look after the offices of the county and see that the records are properly kept, and also of the Circuit clerk.

Whisky can be sold under license, and the law prescribes how it can be sold, when, and to whom. See that these men sell in accord with the laws governing same. They can not sell to an inebriate, and this law strictly enforced would close the saloons. Especially do I ask your attention to intoxicants sold to minors. It is to the boys the saloonist would be attentive, winning them to the support of their business before they keep.

come matured men with habits pronounced and have too much sense to become patrons of saloons.

Then there is the crime of murder, shooting or cutting with intention to kill, such offenses require your attention. In most cases of this kind the injured or their friends will come before you. Your duty is plain in such cases. Have a clerk, let him be plain with names, and write down the testimony. Some witnesses may be induced, or willfully and of their own conviction swear falsely. Perjurers need to be indicted.

'KENTUCKIANS' HOME

COMING WEEK."

Outline of the Program of Big Event in Louisville Next June.

The programme for "Home Coming Week" in Louisville June 13 to 17, when one hundred thousand former Kentuckians are expected to go back to their native health, is rapidly taking shape.

The first day, Wednesday, June 13 will be known as Reception and Welcome Day; the second, June 14, as Foster Day; the third, June 15, as Daniel Boone Day; the fourth, June 16, as Greater Kentucky Day; and the fifth, Sunday, June 17, as "Until We Meet Again."

The address of welcome is to be delivered by Henry Watterson, and responded to by David R. Francis, of Missouri. Others on the programme are Wm. Lindsay, John G. Carlisle, John M. Harlan, Thomas T. Crittenton, Adlai M. Stevenson, etc.

There will be a civic and military parade on the first day, and every county in the State will establish headquarters in the new Armory, which is the second largest building of the kind in the United States. On Foster Day there will be several events in memory of the author of "My Old Kentucky Home," including the unveiling of a statue of Foster, which will later be cast in bronze and placed in the new Capitol at Frankfort. Daniel Boone Day will be one of the features of the week, during which there will be sewing bees, apple parings, corn huskings and old-fashioned dances. The Commercial Club has offered a handsome medal to the person present on Daniel Boone Day who can prove the closest relationship to the great pioneer. On Greater Kentucky Day there will be barbecues, campfires, etc., and orators will be given the opportunity to tell how Kentuckians have helped make other States greater by their having lived in them. On Sunday former Kentuckians will fill all the pulpits in Louisville. Send names and addresses of any former Kentuckians you may know to R. E. Hughes, Secretary Commercial Club, Louisville, Ky.

SOUND OF SOLDIERS' ARMS

Stories of War—How Princess Is Chased Into Mountains After Capture of Capital.

An imperial edict by the dowager empress of China, issued September 26 last, reads as follows: "In the spring this year the natives of Pagan created trouble and killed Fung Chun, the resident in Thibet, and others. We have repeatedly sent telegraphic orders to the Tartar general and viceroy to send troops for the suppression of the trouble, and it is now reported that Gen. Ma Wei-chih, and others, have reached the homes of the rebels and have arrested and executed the principal murderers of Fung Chun. The whole district has been restored to order and this has been done with expedition and rewards must be given accordingly. Ma Wei-chih, commanding chief of Szechuan, has the button of first-class conferred on him and the privilege of wearing a yellow jacket, and Chao Erh-feng, taotai of Chienchang, has his name added to the board for consideration of a suitable reward."

In the Celebes the Dutch troops are still conducting their little war. Under date of September 15 a correspondent with the invaders writes: "Last Monday the troops landed near Palopo, the capital of the large state of Luwu, a country which five centuries ago boasted of a rather high state of civilization. In the afternoon of September 11 the palace of the princess was captured. The princess herself fled into the mountains. Troops will pursue her. It is not improbable that the old rajah of Bondi and the Rajah Sidenev too have fled to Luwu, and that the unruly crowd who will follow them will hide in the distant mountains—it is said the mountains are 15,000 feet there—and from time to time descend into the plains to plunder."

A curious commission has been sitting at the French ministry of war. It is to decide what kind of bed is to be provided for the soldiers of the French army. So far, the soldier's bed has been a mattress laid upon boards like a particularly hard hammock. The fatigued M. Bertrand, war minister, whose policy is to kill anti-militarism by kindness, proposes to give the soldier a spring under his mattress. But what kind of a spring? And when that spring is chosen, what kind of mattress will be best to go on top of it? These be complicated questions, and a commission whose work is being carefully recorded was the least important body that could hope to answer them. It is toiling faithfully.

Animal Reserve in Africa.
Threatened disappearance of the wild fauna of South Africa has led the Natal government to form a reserve of 20,000 acres in extent on the slopes of the Drakensberg. In the deep "kloofs" of those secluded mountain patches of berg cypress and other natural forest afford good cover for the eland, of which only some 130 specimens now remain in Natal. The reserve also contains herds of blue buck and klipspringer. In this game reserve are also found many valuable specimens of early Bushman paintings and drawings, many of which are disappearing owing to the rapid disintegration of the rock surfaces.

Xing Haakon.

The name of Haakon, which Prince Charles of Denmark will assume, if he ascends the Norwegian throne, recalls the remote past in which Norway was an independent kingdom. Haakon VI., who died in 1380, was the last king whom Norway had of its own. His widow, Margaret, a Danish princess, came to rule over Norway, Denmark and Sweden, and strove to make the arrangement lasting by the union of 1377. Sweden revolted under Gustavus Vasa, the contemporary of King Henry VIII. of England, but Norway remained a Danish dependency till 1814.

Are You Tired, Nervous and Sleepless?

Nervousness and sleeplessness are usually due to the fact that the nerves are not fed on proper nourishing blood; therefore, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, Golden Medical Discovery make pure, rich blood, and thereby all the nerves are fed clean, strong and strenuous—you are toned up and invigorated, and you are ready to work. Rest of all, the strength and increase in vitality and health are lasting. Since we have a large, booming sale for a short time, is that they are largely used by physicians and dentists. The solution: This alcohol shrinks up the red blood corpuscles, and in the long run gives you a better blood. It is a good idea to exhilarated and better fit for the time being, yet in the end it will not be with health.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains no alcohol. Every bottle of Baloo of Honesty, in a full list of all its several ingredients. For the strength to last, and the health to increase, just as good "to insult your intelligence."

Every ingredient entering into the Golden Medical Discovery has the unanimous approval and endorsement of the leading medical authorities throughout the world. It is a safe medicine sold through druggists for like price.

The Golden Medical Discovery not only produces all the good effects to be derived from the bark of the Sassafras root, in stomach, liver and bowel troubles, as in dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, piles, etc., but the bark cures bowels and kindred ailments, but the Golden Seal root used in its composition gives the best results. It is also a good toner by other ingredients such as Stone Root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot, Marshmallow, Senna, etc.

Berea's Beautiful Chapel.

Handsome Building Constructed Mainly by Students.

The new memorial chapel of Berea College, at Berea, Ky., has been dedicated. The building is a commodious one, and is an important adjunct to the educational facilities of the college, as well as an important addition to the college, as well as an important addition to the educational resources of the State.

Dr. J. A. R. Rogers, who offered the dedicatory prayer, was the first principal of the school and was one of the company driven from the State before the war.

THE BUILDING.

It was in what was known as the "Old Gladie Church House" that John G. Fee organized the Church of Christ of Berea (Union non-sectarian and anti-slavery 1853).

The school began in the public school house, but was removed to its present campus by Dr. Rogers, then principal, where two wooden chapels besides the tabernacle have stood.

Soon after the burning of the last chapel (1902) a generous friend of the college, unsolicited, sent word that a new chapel would be provided if it could be built mainly by students.

The building is 83 feet wide and 150 feet long. The tower is 105 feet high and planned to contain a chime of bells. The main auditorium seats nearly 1,000 persons below, and over 400 in the gallery. The chapter room seats 300. Three bible-class rooms seat 100 each. Six student janitors and bell-ring

Brigadier General H. T. Allen, head of the Philippine constabulary, who is spending a six months' leave in the States, stated that he had, since being in the States, secured the requisite number of young college and university men desired by the constabulary of the islands, three of whom had been selected from the Kentucky applicants and sixteen from the other States. Those selected compose a fine body of young men, well fitted bodily and mentally for the positions given them.

General Allen is now desirous of selecting six young physicians for service in the constabulary of the islands, and in reference to this he says:

"Under the new conditions in islands, the Philippine Commission has in its last appropriation act set aside money for an increase in the medical establishment of the constabulary funds to pay for six additional medical officers a $1,400 per annum as entrance salary. These officers will be in the assimilated grade of Second Lieutenants, and will be promoted in accordance with their services and vacancies from time to time. Their promotion will not be entirely by seniority, as for each two who advance by length of service, one will be promoted by selection. Officers are furnished these officers on a parity with other constabulary officers.

"Applicants for these positions must be men of good character in every way, above all, marked sobriety, and must have endorsements from people of well-known character and standing.

CLAIM LOUIS XVII. DESCENT

Party in France with Sincere But Not Numerous Adherents—Queen Known as Madeline.

On the occasion of the anniversary of the death of Marie Antoinette mass was said in the humblest and ancient church of St. Denis at La Chapelle, France, in the presence of the king and queen of France and the dauphin."

The royal personages were a quiet looking gentleman apparently about 40 years of age, a lady very simply dressed, and a little boy with long fair curl, whom she held by the hand. A small number of elderly ladies and gentlemen received their majesties and bowed low when they alighted from a motor car.

The king of France in question is the descendant of Naundorff, who alleged that he was Louis XVII, son of Louis XVI, having been saved from the Temple prison, and, not as most historians believe, done to death, in boyhood, another child having been substituted for the real dauphin. The present king of France de Juny is in deadly earnest about his divine right to the throne, and his followers, who style themselves the only real legitimist party in France, are, though not very numerous, equally sincere and devoted to the cause. It is, however, rather a platonic devotion, and the party has yet made no apparent attempt to bring about a revolution in order to set the king upon his rightful throne. After the religious service the congregation, numbering about a dozen persons, bent knees and kissed hands while bowing low to the queen and the dauphin. The king's name is Jean, and he is therefore John III. of France. The queen is styled usual Princess Madeline, and the boy Prince Henry of Bourbon, dauphin of France.

Cost of Running Four Cities.

An interesting compilation has just been published comparing the aggregate salaries paid by the government of the City of New York to its employees with those of Chicago, Philadelphia, and Boston.

With a population in 1900 of 3,437,000, New York pays in salaries $52,364,272, an average of about $15 per inhabitant.

With a population of about 1,698,000 Chicago pays in salaries $14,791,062, an average of about $9 per inhabitant.

Philadelphia pays $10,793,710 in salaries, an average of about $8 per inhabitant, and Boston pays $10,095,630, an average of about $18 per inhabitant.

Cure Your Balky Horse.

To make a balky horse go, take a rope about twelve feet long. Pass around the forelegs and allow it to drop down below the fetlock joint. Then, taking one end in each hand, have the driver start the horse while the man stands pulling on the rope. This will oblige the horse to jump with one leg on the ground or take a step, and as soon as he does this he will forget to stop again, and if the rope is dropped he will usually walk on it without further trouble. If this is practiced a few times he will get so he will start at the sight of the rope and it will not be necessary to apply it to his leg if he balks.

Coming Events.

You can tell you are in for a dangerous sickness, as soon as you begin to suffer from headache constipation, biliousness, etc., unless you quickly take Dr. Caldwell's (Aqua-va) Syrup Peppin. This most successful cure for all disorders of your digestive organs, never fails to give relief from all the irritant poisons, kept in by clogged bowels, liver and kidneys. Said by W. S. Lloyd at 50¢ and $1.00, Money back if it fails. 25 ct.

The way to have the good opinion of your fellow men is to be of some service to them. There is a young farmer of this country who is ever ready and more than willing to help his neighbors in any way he can, and consequently one stands higher in their esteem than he. Recently, when bands were scarce, he was taking down his own tobacco alone, when he learned that his neighbor was in the same predicament. He quit his work and went to the assistance of the neighbor, where he remained all day. Such instances are rare in the lives of men, but they count for something, and it is every man who forgets acts of kindness, you may be assured.

At the first sign of a corn or bunion the feet should be bathed every morning in cold or warm water to which a little alum or vinegar has been added. This is a soothing bath, also, for swollen feet, and leaves a nice sensation of freshness. Feet that are inclined to corns or bunions should be sponged at night with lavender water or very slightly diluted vinegar. People who suffer from weak ankles should put plenty of salt in the water in which they bathe their feet, and should use the water cold.

GEMS OF PACIFIC COAST.

Beautiful Blue Sapphires Are to Be Found in the Far West—Montana Has Amethyst.

According to George F. Kunz, the famous gem expert, among the most valuable gems found in the west are beautiful blue sapphires from Yogo gulch, Ferguson county, Mont. These present a striking contrast to the varied colors—red, yellow, brown, blue, green and white—of those found in Granite county, Mont. Montana also produces remarkable examples of amethyst and of smoky quartz.

From the Pacific coast proper the most northerly exhibit is that of the peculiar large crystals of garnet from Fort Wrangell, Alaska. These garnets are distributed through a gray mica schist, like plums in a pudding. From Prince of Wales island come magnificent large crystals of dark green epidote. Celts, hammers and knives made of green jade are found in graves in Alaska; Lieut. Storey some years ago found this substance in place as a vein material at Jade mountain, Oregon, produces agate. Chalcedony comes from Kern county, Cal., and charming green chrysoprase from Visalia, Tulare county, Cal., where the finest examples of this material found on the American continent have been obtained in some quantity. Of much interest is the compact green vesuvianite from Yreka, Siskiyou county, Cal., a stone with some future as an ornamental material, being almost as tough and as beautiful in color as the best jade. Another beautiful green mineral is stilbite, a gem stone peculiar to Utah. It is a rich golden green stone, slightly translucent.

It is a striking circumstance that where the west and east meet—in Japan and in California—should be found such masses of transparent rock crystal, from which can be cut those wonderful balls which the collectors of the world have always obtained with such delight from Japan. Calaveras county, Cal., produces great masses of this material that cut rock crystal balls measuring from 2 to 5½ inches in diameter.

Southern California is fast becoming known as one of the most remarkable gem regions in the world. San Diego county produces splendid tourmalines from Mesa Grande and Pala—wonderful gems that weigh up to 20 carats each—red, green, yellow.

Kunzite, discovered in San Diego county, runs from five carats to nearly 100 and varies in color from pale pink to dark rich lilac. Fine topaz crystals of light blue color come from Ramona and Valley Center, San Diego county, Cal., the best topaz that this continent has produced. Beryls come from the same region.

Wyoming furnishes moss agate, and New Mexico turquoise and pyrope garnets. From Arizona come wonderfully beautiful malachite and azurite from copper mines, also chrysocolla.

Pure Water Helps Engines.

People may be willing to drink impure water, but they are not willing to offer it to their locomotives. Purified water results in sure economy and excellent business returns from the view point of the locomotive operators, and also relieves the shops and round-houses of a vast amount of work, which increases the weight of locomotives and the increased demand upon them. Although the first cost is large, returns are so prompt and so liberal that to do without water purification is pronounced folly.

Needed.

"Well, well!" exclaimed the man who was reading the scientific notes, "some one has invented a woman's theater hat that shuts up."

"Huh!" snorted the other, "somebody else ought to invent a box party that would do the same thing occasionally." —Philadelphia Press.

MT. STERLING AS SHE IS AND MAY BE.

Sun Turned On.

Monday evening gas was turned on in our city and the people are astounded. The pressure is natural and the light of a soft yellow shade. It is ready for both day and night, and is burning day and night both in the store of Chauvin & Orear and in the windows as a light. The pressure is eighty-five pounds.

Business is good in Mt. Sterling, very good, and now our people are adding more fuel, thereby increasing their activity.

THE CROAKER.

Like all other live cities we have a small supply of do nothing folks, a kind that sit around, talk, and just exist. To these people is due much sympathy, for they must either get out of the way or be run over.

TO EXPECT.

We are to expect from the installment of natural gas just what has come to other cities under like conditions.

The plants with power at $1.50 per M feet are now prepared to compete with cities that have cheap gas, our rate being only 25c. per M cubic feet now. We are in position to invite such manufacturing plants as can use our crude materials.

At our doors is wood, the pulp of which is used in the making of paper, also an abundance of straw which can be used for the same purpose, hardwood for handle factories, also stock for staves. Then there is grown here an immense quantity of the highest grades of tobacco. Already we find a demand for residences, and that demand is sure to increase, and our people and others as well should be encouraged to supply this demand.

Now, Mt. Sterling has two large planing mills, two machine shops, two flouring mills, one box factory, one tobacco factory, two broom factories, one buggy factory, four newspapers, two Democratic and two Republican, five publishing houses, three strictly wholesale groceries, the largest coal and feed establishment east of Louisville, distributing point for coal, the largest live stock court day market in the State, at times at least 10,000 head of cattle being on the market.

Blue grass seed plant where the chaff is separated from the seed. This is the only plant in the Blue Grass section.

The McBrayer Distilling company, one of the largest in the State, is also here.

Two laundry plants, four banks, two hotels, restaurants, and our dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, furnishing, jewelry and retail groceries, furniture, piano, sewing machine, compare favorable with any inland city established in Kentucky. Churches representing seven denominations and the orders of Masons, Odd Fellows, A. O. U. W., Modern Woodmen of America, Woodmen of the world, K. O. T. M., L. O. L. M., Red Men, B. P. O. E. (Elks) all live organizations. There are six fine livery and stable stables, four poultry yards with a large business, stone works, marble works, concrete plant, etc. And contiguous to Mt. Sterling in course of construction, is a Portland cement plant. Quarries of fine building and pavement stone, iron ore, etc.

In the midst of the blue grass section, and yet a gateway to the rich resources of Eastern Kentucky. Two railroads come in from the east and one from the west, the main line of the C. & O., and in prospect an electric line connecting us with the L. & N., L. & E., Q. & C. and the Southern railroads.

This is Mt. Sterling's beginning in part, and what she will be is due to our own efforts and those entering the business arena.

Judge H. Clay McKee, now standing the stormy evening when gas was turned on, was listened to attentively as he spoke of Mt. Sterling and her future and others have the same quick pulse as he has.

The city limits have not been extended for thirty years, which if done would give a population of possibly 7,500. Our people as a rule, are industrious, refined, and their children have a fine public graded high school, select schools, military school and a public library. Also have electric light plant, ice plant and water plant.

Lands are favorable for building lots, and our proximity to crude materials invites men of means and pluck who would grow enrich and develop with the city.

BANQUET AT METHODIST CHURCH IN LEXINGTON.

Judge Ed. G. O'Rear Will Not Vote for a Saloon Keeper.

On Friday night, Rev. U. G. Foote pastor of the Hill Street Methodist Church gave his 4th annual banquet. There were about 100 men present. Geo. Bain was Toastmaster. We clip from the Morning Herald the following report of several of the speeches:

The first speaker was Hon. D. L. Thornton, of Versailles. His subject was "National Conscience."

Judge Thornton is President of the State Bar Association. He said that all men acknowledge the still small voice. The continued prosperity of the United States has shown that there are many grafters in charge of our affairs. This fact has caught the attention of the public, and something has been done—the national conscience has been aroused. This public sentiment has brought many prominent men of the United States before the court, and has convicted them.

POLE THE PIONEER.

The man who has done this is Governor Folks, of Missouri. The Governor of Indiana caught Folks, fire and he cleaned up French Lick and West Baden. Patterson, who stood for morality, was elected Democratic Governor of Ohio. The insurance companies were regular plum trees for the officer's families. Men of high rank, like the Senator from Oregon, have been convicted of crime. The ministers of Philadelphia went to Mayor John Weaver and asked him in the name of God to enforce the laws. Weaver spent the night in prayer and the next day he started out to clean up.

JUDGE O'REAR.

Toastmaster Bain then introduced Judge E. C. O'Rear, who spoke on "The Dear Old Girl—Kentucky." He said that this was his opportunity he had long wanted to preach a sermon to the preacher. He said that one always says of Kentucky, "With all her faults we love her still." This is a sad condition. We must think of homicides and that law are not rigidly enforced. The law is just public opinion—the national conscience. There is use of heavy laws for the brutes that people do not want. The people are the government. The jurors are the highest officials in the community.

The people who build one church and ten saloons will always have homicides in Kentucky. It is an insult to our intelligence when we allow men to make criminals out of our sons by gambling and drinking. It is our own fault. We have abused poor old Kentucky enough. More than 75 per cent of homicides that get to the Court of Appeals show that whisky is the cause. We people who prefer to serve God are selling our rights to saloon men. If this audience would go to Mayor Combs and ask him to close the saloons he would do so. If Fayette county and Lexington wanted the saloons closed he would close them. No political party in the world is big enough to make me vote for a saloon keeper. The new Constitution, adopted in 1891, allows preachers to sit in the Legislature, and they should enter politics. Women should be allowed to vote on liquor and school issues. Kentuckians like whisky, but it is not best for them. We turn out more barrels of whisky than we do college graduates. If Kentucky would come out on the right side we have plenty of Folks and Jeromes.

Rev. Morris, of Centenary Methodist Church, speaking of Judge O'Rear said: "That any preacher in the Commonwealth would have been proud to deliver the sermon that Judge O'Rear delivered.

January Court.

About 1000 cattle in the market. The quality was medium, very few about good cattle offered. Prices a shade higher on trade was slow, buyers strong prices were too high. While a few cattle sold at 4 cents the bulk of sales was at $3.50 to $7.75. Heifers were brisk and sold at $9 to $25, with fat ones selling at $30 to $35. Cows at 2 1/2 to 3c with some fat cows at 3c to 3 1/2c. There was not as many people at the pens as usual, but enough buyers to take all the cattle offered. The demand for 900 to 1000 pound steers was good, but very few of that grade for sale. We caught a few of the sales and they will give you the market:

Cheanault & Cockrell bought 11 600lb yearling steers of O. B. Duley at $3.75; Rev. J. R. Hobbs bought 27 about 700lb yearlings of Green Allen at $25 per head; Thos Adams bought 8 900lb cows of Pieratt & Duff at 2 1/2c; O. B. Duley sold 6 1000lb steers to Will W. Gay, of Clark County, at 4c; Sid Hart sold two fat cows, weighing 1050lb to Sam Laythrum at $3 and $3.25; Mr. Laythrum also bought a 1000lb cow of Ben Murphy at $3 and a fat 900lb heifer at $3.50; Thos Adams, of Fayette, bought 25 cows and oxen at about these prices; Duff & Pieratt sold 11 600lb steers to Sam Willoughby, of Madison, at 3c. A good many other sales at these prices.

MULES.

Mules are still very high and prices remind one of the way they sold during the Civil war in 1863 and '64. A L Tipton sold a heavy pair of mare mules to Gentry, Thompson & Co. at $400; Mr. Hul sold same parties a pair of heavy mules at $25; 16-hand mules at $175 to $190; 18.2 mules at $150 to $165; 15 hand mules $125 to $140; small mules at $90 to $10; Greenwade & Co. sold 13 15.1 to 15.2 mules at $150; Lexington dealers bought 3 car loads; McClinton & Son one car, besides the farmers trade and small dealers. There must have been about 200 miles sold during the day.

Horses were also in demand at good prices. A great many good, useful horses sold during the day at from $100 to $150; medium horses at $85 to $100; pugs at $40 to $60.

Potato water, the water in which potatoes are boiled, will remove warts, even the worst seed warts that ever come on the hands of children or grown-ups. Wash the hands two or three times a day in the potato water, using no soap, or anything else, and let the water dry off on the skin, or bathe the spots affected every little while in the course of the day, keeping them constantly moistened with the potato water, and the warts will disappear in a very short time.—Exchange.

There are none better here for she was prompt, a commanding and accurate, and an excellent woman.

Gas Pressure.

The pressure of natural gas has been taken, and it shows 85 pounds to the square inch. The gas comes from the Menefee wells and the owners of the wells have estimated a continual flow for the present cities in connection, Mt. Sterling, Winchester and Lexington for a life of 20 years from the present supply. In this estimate has been considered the enormous growth which is sure to come and which will cause a demand of several times what it now is. They have also considered the factories, such as paper mills, spoke factories, tobacco and many others which follow in the inauguration of cheap fuel and light in our thrifty cities.

Attorney General Hayes filed a report with the Senate, showing that other States spend each year for their Attorney Generals and assistants sums ranging from $14,000 to $42,000, while Kentucky pays for no assistants and allows the Attorney General $4,000 salary. The report was ordered printed.

NO LEGAL INJURY

For White Woman To Be Taken
For Black Woman.

The Court of Appeals reversed the Fayette Circuit Court in the case of the Southern Railway vs. Louella Thurman. She was a passenger on a train to Harrodsburg standing at Lexington, and was invited out of the "white" coach into the colored coach by the conductor. She discovered after she had been seated that he had done so presuming she was a colored person. After being identified by friends to the conductor she was taken in the white coach.

The court reverses the $4,000 judgment on the instruction. It says: "It is not a legal injury for a white person to be taken for a colored person," and gives directions in reconnection.

LITTLE POCKET PHYSICIAN

Homœal Inhaler that is Guaranteed by

W. S. Lloyd to Cure Cataract.

Thousands who have been cured by Homœal, call the inhaler that comes with every outfit "The little pocket physician," as it is so small that it can be carried in the pocket or purse.

There is really no excuse whatever for anyone having cataract now that Homœal is so readily obtainable. If you have any doubts about its value, W. S. Lloyd will let you have a complete outfit with the understanding that unless it cures cataract, it will not cost you a cent.

A complete Homœal outfit consists of "the little pocket physician," a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Homœal, and costs only $1, while additional bottles of Homœal can be procured for 50 cents, making it the most economical, as well as the most reliable treatment for the cure of cataract.

A letter from W. H. Geveden, of West Liberty, Ky., is written from Leesburg, Florida. In putting the men on their honor, the Mayor thought that better results would be obtained than by using harsher measures. The agreement reads as follows:

"It is quite probable that the next President of the United States will be inaugurated on the last Thursday in April, 1909, instead of the 4th day of March. The change is to be made to avoid the disagreeable weather, which usually prevails early in March. The change will meet with popular approval.
